

Administrative Procedure 3042

Communicable Diseases

The Board of Education has a responsibility under Sections 109 and 110 of the School Act to protect, where possible, students and employees from the danger of exposure to communicable diseases. This responsibility includes the authority to restrict the attendance of a student or suspend an employee when necessary, on the advice of the school medical officer.