OLD NEWS

- Corvid Presentation: Saturday, Dec 2 from 1:00pm to 2:00pm, downstairs Native Sons Hall, Courtenay. You've probably heard the phrase "bird-brain" before, but perhaps we shouldn't be so quick to paint all feathered beings with the same brush. There is plenty of history, legend and even current research to suggest that some bird species, including a few that you'll find in your own back yard, rival the great apes and cetaceans for intelligence. Come listen to some funny, heartwarming and surprising facts and stories about these birds.
- Greeting all AG's! The yearbook class challenges every AG to organize a group photo that somehow uses a theme or props or costumes or signs or anything otherwise photoboothy. Each AG can take a photo (or photos) themselves or they can request a yearbook photographer to drop by their AG on a set date. Photos can be submitted to the Shared Drive - where you will find a folder at the top called AG Photobooth Challenge. Photos are all due by December 8th. The three AG's with the most creative and entertaining photos will win holiday treats!
