

Dear Parents

With the summer almost upon us we wanted to offer the parents and community a fantastic opportunity to learn and support your son/daughter on “Internet Safety and Raising Digital Kids”. During the day on June 18th Jesse Miller, an internationally recognized speaker, will be at Mark Isfeld to present to our students and the grade 6 & 7’s from our feeder schools. In the evening Jesse will facilitate a presentation on raising digital kids for the parents and community from SD#71.

Topic: Raising Digital Kids
Date: Tuesday, June 18th
Place: Mark Isfeld Gymnasium
Time: 6:30-8:00 pm

I hope to see you on the 18th,
Sean

Jesse Miller

Jesse Miller (MA. PgDip) is a recognized authority on the topics of Internet safety, social media education, and digital literacy trends. Based in Vancouver, Jesse is an international speaker who has addressed thousands of participants in primary, secondary, and post-secondary education. Jesse is in high demand as a keynote speaker and consultant within British Columbia education and federal and municipal public safety, delivering presentations to schools and non-profit groups who seek to facilitate change for youth online. His presentations are continually developing as social media and communication trends evolve with youth and engage a dialogue that provides multiple resources to facilitate media literacy education.
